Exactly [what] I was searching for. Schmitz is clear and specific! Hints for how to proceed were very helpful.

-Joshua Dixon, radio personality & author of The Kydd Files.

Speaking Topics

From Idea to Paperback “2 Paths”

Schmitz talks about the changing publishing world and the differences between types of publishers, and how to avoid scams and pick the best path for a writer.

From Idea to Paperback “Nuts & Bolts”

The meat of the course includes a checklist if followed, results in producing a quality, published book that can be purchased online and carried by bookstores.

From Idea to Paperback Workshop

The workshop portion and a Q&A are key parts to seeing the principles of the course in action. Schmitz can also help revise and make recommendations on attendees' manuscripts.

Bio

Published both traditionally and independently, Schmitz has a passion for Indies. He has over 20 books in print and wrote The Indie Author's Bible.

Schmitz has taught everyday writers how to pursue publishing since 2016. He's taught courses with NY Times bestsellers and at many classrooms, libraries, and conventions abroad.
